

ZACHARIAH MALACHI & THE NASHVILLE COUNTS

Zachariah Malachi || Front man & acoustic guitarist
Jack Bird || Fiddler & harmony singer
Anthony Castagna || Guitarist & banjo player
Eddie Slide || Steel guitar & trumpet player
Luca Chiappara || Bass extraordinaire

Alex Withey - Press

Ride Home MGMT
alex@ridehomemgmt.com

Sam Parker - Manager

Ride Home MGMT
sam@ridehomemgmt.com

While most country music artists and bands you hear of may stay in a predictable country radio or outlaw oriented lane, Detroit turned Nashvillian Zachariah Malachi has been known to be a shape-shifter of originality to the genre of honky tonk music. He can glide through the minor chords of Eastern European jazz and morph it into the depths of barroom basement regret dealing in topics of cheating, drinking, fighting and the morning after. Zachariah Malachi & The Nashville Counts thrive on giving you a show full of unpredictability that will leave you wondering about their next musical destination. The music is not just country. The music is not just punk. The music is not just Americana or Folk. The music is honky tonk from the Hardscuffle region of Tennessee fueled by the perseverance of a Motor City V8 engine that won't stop until it's race is won.

